

JESUS CHRIST'S WORD TO THE PASTORS AND CHURCHES ALL OVER THE WORLD

TO REPENTANCE, TO WAKE UP, BECAUSE HIS COMING FOR THE CHURCH IS AT THE

"... who has ears to hear, let him hear ..."

March 27th, 2018 - 5:00

You have trodden underfoot my covenant. You have trodden underfoot, my blood. You have perverted the words of the living God. Did you believe that I was going to be silent? You have been a public speaker of the false prophets and teachers, replicating the filthiness of their teachings and devil doctrines; you haven't been afraid of me, and you have used my holy pulpit to replicate heresies and blasphemies against my name.

You have done like Israel. I will judge you for that. You have hidden my Word, you have stopped with injustice the truth, and because of that, you have committed fornication; you lay down as a harlot after the materialism, vanity and vainglory gods; you were a holy wife, and now you have become an adulterous because of the lusts of your heart.

Where is the Book? Where is my Word? You have forgotten It; you have thrown It to the deepest not to let It shine anymore; instead of my Word, you have put your abominations, your imaginations, the vanity of your mind, and your heart; you did like the people of Israel that hid the book of the Law by centuries, and its depraved kings and filthy priests replace my Word, my glorious, eternal and incorruptible Word, by human commandments.

Do not you look at yourself? Do not you see that you are filthy? Repent and have the courage to recognise your sin; come now and let us reason together and make full restitution. You have perverted my faith, my covenant, and my Word. How can you declare that the faith is in the corruptible things!? How can you declare that my Word is for the corruptible things!? How can you declare that my covenant is corruptible!? Because you use my holy and powerful faith to corruptible things, you use my holy and glorious Word to corruptible things, and my covenant, the covenant in my precious blood to corruptible things. Look! I will judge you for that if you do not come now and let us reason together. Where will you hide of my presence? Where will you hide of my judgment? Repent and restore the fallen altar.

You despise my statutes. How can you rise and decree taking my place if only I, the Highest, am glorious!? You are dust.

Have you not realised that you are dust!? Why do not you say: "O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death!?" So that you could remember how I made you and that you breathe and walk because of my breath of life.

Your soul despises me; you scorn my statutes; you do not obey my commandments and break my covenant.

And you say like Saul: "I do have performed the commandment of the Lord", "Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord!" How are you going to obey if you offer strange fire!? How are you going to obey if your altar is mingled!? You offer mixture before me: "here a little, and there a little" Do you believe you can fool me? How can you be holy if you leaven the dough and mingle with ungodly men that pervert my Word!? And you say: "I do not do that, I do not preach that", but you let that my altar that I lifted be used by the ungodly men, the apostates, the reprobates and by the unclean people to extend their uncleanness, their devil doctrines, their East practices and customs: "visualise, decree, decree, make a pact", this is uncleanness! Everything is unclean! And then you preach my Word as though nothing had happened and soothe your conscience, but what you do is to fill my altar and the teaching of my Word with more uncleanness. "Who accuses me? You say, "if I am holy, chosen, servant, minister; if I do the will of God"? But my Word testifies against you. Do not you remember? The book of the Law was next to the Ark of the Covenant and was there as a witness against the people of Israel. Likewise, my Word testifies against you; the Word that you have rejected, the Word that you have scorned, and that you have trodden underfoot.

Yes. Like Israel transgressed my covenant, Church! you have done it, and you have gone and have honoured strange gods, those that Satan offered me in the desert. Church, how have you bowed to his feet! You fell in his deceit! He said: "I will give you all these things, if you fall down and worship me"; did not you learn about what I did? I answered him: "It is written", "it is written again" I wanted to teach you this truth many times, but you did not want! You refused to listen, and instead of listening, you began to blaspheme.

Yes. Where are you now, Church? I ask you, as I did with Adam! Where are you? You hide from my presence; Church, you are naked; and now, whom do you blame? To my servants who directly admonish you, as I do from Heaven, from my Holy, and Perfect Throne! O Poor Church that you are! Look! How you have fallen under Satan's feet! You are worshipping him!

You say: "how do I worship him?" You worship him when you publish his lies and call them the truth of my Word. You say: "how do I worship him?" When you sing his unclean songs, sung by singers of injustice, ungodliness, adulterous singers that delight in the world, singers that sing their desires and wishes, singers that foam out their own shame, wandering stars, clouds that are without water. Who told you my glory is in your psalmodies if you worship Satan? Take away from me the noise of your songs. I will not hear the melody of your instruments because you play them with lust, pride and vanity in your heart!

Do you really believe that you offer me the sacrifice of praise? Do you really believe that your songs are my tabernacle of praise, hymns, and psalms to my name? How can you believe it if it is a long time ago that you forsook my Word!? How can you believe it if it is a long time ago that you forgot who you praised!? And you have placed yourself in my place. If it is long time ago that your altar is ruined, cracked, and filthy because there is no burnt offering, there are no holy singers, and there is no living, holy, and sweet savor sacrifice before my presence.

Church, really do you believe that I will rapture to you in this condition? What does my Word say? A glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. What are you going to do then? Cry, come to me with a contrite heart; cry out to me for pardon and mercy. Do not you see that I am calling you? Do not you see that the time is fulfilled? How can you not see that the sky is red? How can you not see the signs that show that everything is fulfilled? We are in borrowed times. Do not you see that my people are waking up all over the world? And crying out: "Behold, the Bridegroom comes!" Cannot you listen to that cry? Have you waxed gross your heart? Have you become dull of hearing? Have your eyes been blinded?

Come to me Church with a broken and humbled heart in repentance, and I will turn to you. I will clean your uncleanness and rapture you in glory.
